

163 Larmer Street Narrandera NSW

5 3 8

Sitting atop an oversized lot with leafy vistas over the flowing channel below; this home has been transformed into a sanctuary, and now provides a rare opportunity to those searching for the ultimate family abode. The brick residence is finished in render for a subtle street presence, with every feature behind the facade having been redesigned to accommodate a large family while offering plenty of spare room.

Stepping into an open-plan living domain, hardwood polished floorboards extend throughout the house with the rear quarters sectioned off by a stunning timber barn door. At the front, a large-yet-cosy lounge area opens to an exceptionally positioned front deck. Occupying the same space is a contemporary chef's kitchen offering high-end
